

The Most Romantic Getaways in Oklahoma

From hotels inside landmarks to secluded cabins, you and your partner will find a romantic getaway for you in this Southwest state.

by Jenna Clark · Updated Jul 24, 2025

If you're in the process of planning some romantic getaways in Oklahoma for you and your partner, this is the page for you. Whether you want to bask in Oklahoma's vast geography, including rolling hills, forests and lakes in a secluded area or want to get away in one of the city's more popular cities, such as Oklahoma City, Tulsa or Norman, we have options for you.

We've gathered a list of places where you can take a romantic getaway in Oklahoma, some of which include cabins, hotels and bed-and-breakfasts. Read on for 15 of the most romantic getaways you can add to your travel bucket list right now.

OKANA Resort & Indoor Waterpark, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Photo: OKANA Resort & Indoor Waterpark

While an indoor water park might not be what first comes to mind when thinking about unique romantic getaways in Oklahoma, you shouldn't rule out OKANA Resort and Indoor Waterpark. You can start your day at the adults-only section of the resort, also known as OKANA Beach, before visiting Jack Rabbit, the resort's signature restaurant for elevated dishes, including salmon and prime steak for dinner. If you have extra time and are seeking even more relaxation, like a facial or massage, pop over to the Spa at OKANA for a treatment or two — yes, couples massages are available.

Things to Do: Swimming, beach, spa treatments, Oklahoma History Center, Myriad Botanical Gardens, Paseo Arts District and Oklahoma City Zoo.

639 First Americans Boulevard, Oklahoma City, OK 73129