

Okana Resort to host inaugural food and wine fest, featuring celebrity chef

OKLAHOMA CITY (KDAF) — OKANA Resort & Indoor Waterpark will debut OKANAFest, Okla.'s first resort-wide food, wine and entertainment festival, on Saturday, Oct. 17. The culinary celebration is tailored exclusively for guests ages 21 and over and will feature an appearance by “Hell’s Kitchen” champion Chef Christina Wilson.

OKANAFest is designed as an annual signature event to encourage both locals and visitors to experience the property in new ways throughout the year. The festival will feature chef-driven bites crafted by OKANA’s culinary team. Executive Chef Wyatt Rogers leads the team, which will highlight flavors from across the resort’s 14 dining venues. Guests can experience exclusive tasting menus, live cooking demonstrations, limited-time festival dishes and chef-created bites available only during OKANAFest.

Premium beverage partners will offer curated tastings with an extensive lineup of top-tier beer, wine and spirits. Attendees can sample wines, craft beers and premium spirits from nationally recognized brands. Beverage experts will also lead guided tastings, cocktail demonstrations and curated pairings. Entertainment will be woven throughout the resort layout, including high-energy live performances and music. The lineup features live bands, DJs, aerial bartending and contortionists.

Chef Wilson will headline an exclusive VIP meet & greet, a live cooking demonstration and a Q&A session at OKANAFest. This offers guests a rare chance to connect with her in person.

General Admission tickets cost $75 and provide full access to OKANAFest’s festival showcase. This includes live entertainment throughout the resort, food, wine and spirits tastings, a custom OKANAFest wine glass and immersive photo opportunities.

For an enhanced experience, VIP Access tickets are available for $125. These tickets include complimentary valet parking, one hour early admission and an exclusive meet & greet with Chef Wilson. VIP guests will also receive a premium chef-driven brunch buffet curated by OKANA's culinary team, intimate VIP-only live entertainment and cocktail demonstrations from expert mixologists and a custom OKANAFest wine glass lanyard. To purchase tickets or learn more about the event, visit www.okanaresort.com/offers-events/okana-fest/ or call (572) 228-4001.