

OKANA Resort partners with Tinker Federal Credit Union on safety upgrades

OKANA Resort & Indoor Water Park is partnering with Tinker Federal Credit Union to improve visibility and safety measures throughout the indoor water park.

As part of the partnership, TFCU branding will be integrated into life vests and lifeguard uniforms to create a more consistent and recognizable safety presence for families.

An OKANA spokesperson said the effort aims to add to existing protocols and reinforce awareness in high-traffic areas of the resort.

"Safety isn't something guests think about just once—it's something they experience throughout their visit," OKANA Director of Partnerships Natalia Arbelaez said. "By bringing TFCU said the partnership reflects a continued investment in supporting Oklahoma families. create a more seamless and reassuring environment for families."

"We deeply value our partnership with OKANA," said Nicole
